THE DOGENSTEINS

Who Are The Dogensteins? They are everything, and nothing at all. They are a polka band, that plays rock, country, metal, industrial, new wave, classics, and The Beatles. Lots of Beatles. Except as a polka. Or maybe waltz, a swing, or a nice Texas shuffle. Regardless, theirs is a performance that will not be forgotten.

In short, they must be seen (and heard) to be believed. Call it a credibility problem.

The Dogensteins' origins can be traced to The Alpine Village Band, a combo with nearly 50 years history playing German and Czech standards at Oktoberfest festivals across Texas.

Somehow, somewhere, things got twisted.

The Dogensteins spam multiple genres and styles of music, faster than a dog-paddle across a kiddie pool. Countless influences made the band into the constantly evolving tour-de-force it is today.

Bandleader Wes Kucera has been playing drums for the past 40 years, performing rock, Broadway theater, and German music, among other styles. In 2004 Wes became a Grammy Recording Artist as he recorded on Brave Combo's CD Let's Kiss, which won the Grammy for Best Polka Album of the Year.

Molly Fine brings exquisite vocals to the group. Her experience includes performing in tribute bands In-tenders (The Pretenders) and INTXS (INXS).

Byron Palla adds vocals, sax, guitar and bass to The Dogensteins. Byron's musical background includes various bands in the DFW Metroplex as well as marching, jazz and symphonic bands while attending the Universities of Texas and Florida.

Brian Busch plays the electronic accordion and bass guitar. Brian has played many musical styles since childhood in Detroit, and has continued to do so in diverse bands after moving to Dallas many years ago.

Sander Hickerson plays guitar, bass and sax, and provides vocals. He has two Austin Music Awards as a member of diRTy WoRMz, and currently performs with Molly in INTXS and In-tenders.

The Dogensteins will add a new dimension to any concert, festival or private function. For more information, email booking@thedogensteins.com, call 214-724-1479, or visit thedogensteins.com.
